sleeping with cats a memoir Sometimes rambling, often brilliantly evocative, Sleeping With Cats, pleased me most when Piercy spoke of her cats. I felt her connection to them was profoundly moving. I even shed some tears when she described Oboe's death. Thank you for a book that explores our relationship to these sensitive and intelligent beings.

Sleeping With Cats: A Memoir by Marge Piercy - Goodreads

sleeping with cats a memoir Babies and young children should not have cats in their bedroom. By young children, I would say children under 4 or 5, and definitely, don't let a cat near a sleeping baby. While I have only found one suspected case of a cat smothering a baby, the fact is a 4-5kg cat sleeping in close proximity to a small baby does pose a risk.

Sleeping With Cats - Cat World

sleeping with cats a memoir Disrupted sleep. Cats are champion sleepers, clocking around 15 hours a day, but their sleep cycles aren't the same as ours. A cat who snoozes the day away might be ready to compete in the Kitty Olympics come 2 a.m., racing around the room and leaping off furniture. Athletic feats aside, cats may snore, scratch,...
